

ELIZABETH PLAZA

Elizabeth Plaza

Founder and Chairwoman, PharmaBioServ

Elizabeth Plaza is a strategist and the founder and President of Strategic Consultants International, LLC (since 2013), and the founder and Chairwoman of compliance support and consulting company PharmaBio Serv (since 1993). Throughout her career she has provided services in the Caribbean, USA, Europe, Asia and Latin America. Prior to establishing her own business, she worked for Warner Lambert, now Pfizer and Johnson & Johnson. Graduated with a degree in Pharmaceutical Sciences from the School of Pharmacy of the University of Puerto Rico, attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Executive Development program, and the Kellogg Management Development Program for Minority CEOs at Northwestern University in Illinois.

Ms. Plaza's 30 years of achievements have been recognized by many entities, including the Puerto Rico Pharmacists Association, the Puerto Rico Minority Business Development Agency, The Puerto Rico Manufacturer's Association, Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year and many others. As a member of numerous professional organizations, on September 2006, she founded and Presided the Industrial Women Chapter of the Puerto Rico Manufacturer's Association to advance women inclusion in the workforce and accelerate women career development. She has served as a board member for: U.S. Department of Commerce's National Advisory Council on Minority Business Enterprise (MBDA); the Puerto Rico Manufacturers Association; the Export Commerce Advisory Council for the Puerto Rico government; CEAL (Latin America Entrepreneur Council), among others. In addition, she has been an active member of the Pharmaceutical Industrial Association (PIA), The Parenteral Drug Association (PDA) and Puerto Rico Pharmaceutical Quality Association (PRPQA). She founded Ángeles Vivientes – a foundation that serves the Puerto Rico community in the prevention of child abuse and is currently the Chairwoman of its Board of Directors.