

Rodolfo Sanchez-Colberg – Managing Partner, Parliament Capital Management

Mr. Sánchez-Colberg, a seasoned credit and investment management professional, is the co-founder and Managing Partner of Parliament Capital Management (“PCM”), a San Juan based fund manager with a focus on direct lending and other credit opportunities. Since the launch of PCM’s investment advisory business in 2015, PCM has originated over $250MM in loans to small and middle market companies in Puerto Rico and the US. Prior to founding PCM, he served as Chief Executive Officer and Managing Partner of Operating Partners Co, LLC (“OPC”) and affiliates, a group of companies specializing on investments in credit opportunities and special situations with over $3.3 billion in assets under management, including consumer, commercial and real estate loan portfolios, both performing and non-performing. Through

OPC, Rodolfo also led a number of transactions of distressed receivables portfolios and other special opportunities in Latin America and Europe.

Rodolfo has a B.A. in Management and Information Systems from the Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico and successfully completed the Regional Entrepreneurship Acceleration Program (REAP) from the Sloan School of Management of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). He serves as Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the Instituto Psicopedagógico de Puerto Rico and is a Member of the Board of Directors of Accepta, LLC, a payment processing company. He is also Chairman of the Puerto Rico Chapter of the Young President’s Organization (YPO) and is an investment advisor representative (Series 65 certified).