Dr. Jean-Christophe May

President, Pharmaceutical Industry Association of PR (PIA) and VP & General Manager, GlaxoSmithKline

Jean-Christophe May is Vice President and general manager of GSK Pharmaceuticals Puerto Rico. And is president of the Board of the Pharmaceutical Industry Association.

JC is a Pharm D and holds a MBA from the Institut Supérieur des Affaires

Before joining GSK, J.C. worked in 1993/1994 in Barcelona, Spain, for a French pharmaceutical company. In 1995 he joined his homeland GSK France as HIV Product Manager, then became a Group Product Manager before being appointed HIV Sales and Marketing Director in 2001. In late 2003 he became GSK Director Commercial Strategy Infectious Diseases Europe, based in London. In early 2004 this was expanded to incorporate European Commercial Development for Pharmaceuticals Europe, and in March 2005 he took on the role of Commercial Director, GSK Netherlands, Pharmaceuticals. He moved to his current role at GSK in 2008. JC joined the Board of PIA in 2009 and became its president in 2010.
