

Danny Oppenheimer Bio

Danny Oppenheimer has 20 years of management, operations, construction and quality assurance/control experience. As part of Fluor Corporation's Life Sciences & Advance Manufacturing business, he leads the company's San Juan, Puerto Rico office overseeing its successful business development strategy, engineering and construction businesses and the office's safety record. Danny is also responsible for growing and diversifying Fluor's services in countries within the Caribbean and Latin America. While at Fluor, Danny has held numerous international management positions overseeing projects at Bacardi, Lilly, and Abbott Pharmaceutical in Puerto Rico and Corning Manufacturing in Beijing, China. Danny is a graduate of Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science in engineering.