

Ricardo Álvarez-Díaz, AIA, NCARB, CAAPPR | BIOGRAPHY

Ricardo Álvarez-Díaz is the founder and president of Álvarez-Díaz & Villalón® a leading architectural and interior design firm, with offices in San Juan and Miami. Over its fifteen-year history, his international firm has performed work in the United States, Central America, South America and the Middle East.

Alvarez-Diaz is the President of Puerto Rico Builders Association plus the president of the Governor's Infrastructure Advisory Committee. Recently he was selected as a member of the board of directors of Invest PR (Enterprise Puerto Rico).

He began his career working in New York for famed architect and educator Robert A.M. Stern and studied architecture in Italy and the U.S., where he received his bachelor degree from The University of Notre Dame.