

Mrs. Joubert Pereira obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with concentration in Public Accounting, Summa Cum Laude, from the Pontifical Catholic University of Puerto Rico. She completed her Juris Doctor, Magna Cum Laude, at the University of Puerto Rico School of Law. Mrs. Joubert Pereira subsequently completed her LL.M. in Taxation at the New York University School of Law. She is also a Certified Public Accountant.

Mrs. Joubert Pereira concentrates her practice on general Puerto Rico taxes, such as income, sales and use, property, and municipal license taxes, as well as U.S. federal income taxes. Her practice also includes more specialized areas such as tax incentives, tax exempt organizations, and competent authority requests, including those dealing with income reallocations made by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. She has substantial experience working on sales and use tax matters for various types of merchants and has assisted her clients in a wide array of related issues.

Mrs. Joubert Pereira played an active role in the drafting of the Puerto Rico Film Industry Economic Incentives Act and has assisted clients in the film and entertainment industry. She has recently been involved in tax planning for the relocation of service industries and of individuals under the Export Services Act (Act 20-2012) and Individual Investor's Act (Act 22-2012).

She has been a speaker and instructor for the Puerto Rico CPA Society and the Puerto Rico Manufacturer's Association.
