

Mr. Kai P. Schoenhals, Esq.

Corporate Director of Business Relations, Grupo VICINI

Kai Schoenhals was born in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. He studied law and economics at the Pontificia Universidad Católica Madre y Maestra (PUCMM).

Currently Corporate Commercial Director at VICINI, an asset management firm with more than 150 years in the Dominican Republic and presence in several economics sectors. At VICINI he directs trade, customs, new businesses, regional expansion and other related matters in support of the firm's funds.

He serves at the Board of Directors and committees in some VICINI administered companies.

Mr. Schoenhals is also President of the Board of Directors of the Dominican Exporters Association (ADOEXPO) and the Business Alliance for Secure Commerce (BASC).

Additionally, a member of the Board of Directors of the Industries Association of the Dominican Republic (AIRD), Santo Domingo Chamber of Commerce, Dominican-Canadian Chamber of Commerce, Dominican Indian Chamber of Commerce, the National Free Zones Council and the Center for Exports and Investments of the Dominican Republic.

Internationally he is involved in various organizations related with Sugar and Steel.